Atharva Tayade
24102c004
CMPN C T.E

Q.① D India China Japan Germany Us

A] Primary Legislatio

E-waste rules 2022
WEEE management rules and China
Home Appliance Recycling and small WEEE
No federal law, relies on state level legislation.

Latest Major Update.
Rules overhauled in 2022.
Mandatory RoHS standard for 2027
Small home appliance recycling law entitled in 2013
Electro G3 executed in 2021 to meet EV targed

Extended producer Responsibility.

Credit based digital framework requiring procedu
to meet targets through registered recyclers mandatory manufacturer contribution to stat
Strict disposal responsibility from good third manufacturer Producer Take back and reg implemented independently

Q2

Regulatory barriers and Producer Recommendations.

Digital EPR reform system: Under the extended producer must meet strict recycling targets. They achieve this by purchasing EPR certificates from regulators. which refers a market. Bulk consumer mandate: Large institutional buyers are legally prohibited from selling old tech to scrap dealers. They must channel all end of life Future proofing Categories: Govt continously expand legal definition of e-waste to include emerging challenges such as solar photovoltaic modules and lithium ion batteries.

FOR EDUCATIONAL USE